

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

(Pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015)

Modul-System Ltd is part of the Modul-System Group, a leading global manufacturer of modular racking and storage solutions for service vehicles. The Modul-System Group is headquartered in Sweden and operates through multiple subsidiaries across Europe and Asia. Modul-System is also part of the Lifco Group.

Modul-System Ltd is committed to conducting its business responsibly, ethically, and with integrity. The company strives to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and standards relevant to its operations. As part of the Lifco Group, Modul-System operates in alignment with the Lifco Code of Conduct, which sets out clear expectations regarding ethical behaviour, human rights, and responsible business practices. Lifco Group core values can be viewed at Code-of-Conduct-1.pdf

We expect our suppliers, contractors, and business partners to uphold equivalent standards.

Modul-System Ltd is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all areas of its business and throughout its supply chains. We recognise our responsibility to identify, assess, and mitigate the risk of modern slavery and will take all reasonable and practicable steps to ensure that such practices do not occur within our operations or those of our suppliers.

This includes ongoing vigilance in supplier selection, adherence to ethical trading principles, and engagement with business partners to promote transparency and responsible labour practices.

This statement has been approved by the Board of Directors of Modul-System Ltd and is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It constitutes Modul-System Ltd's Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for the financial year ending 2026.
